

THE DONIACH LECTURE AND AWARD

The Doniach Lectureship and Award was founded in 2003 in honour of the late Professor Israel Doniach.

The object of the Doniach Lectureship and Award is to celebrate the life long contribution of a Senior Member of the Society to the science of Pathology and to the scientific activity of the Pathological Society. A complete list of Doniach Lectures can be found on the website.

Ordinances

1. The Doniach Lectureship and Award shall normally be awarded annually.
2. The holder of the Lectureship will be a longstanding Member of the Society.
3. Any Member of the Society may submit nominations to the General Secretary in the form of a 300 word Citation on the nomination form available on the website.
4. Nominations must reach the Operations Manager of the Society by the 11 November 2024. Please submit nomination forms to: operationsmgr@pathsoc.org
5. Nominations shall be invited on the website.
6. The award of the Lectureship shall be made by the Committee of the Society. In the event of no nominations of sufficient merit being received, the Committee of the Society may: (i) nominate a Doniach Lecturer for that year, or (ii) decide that no award be made.
7. The person chosen as a Doniach Lecturer shall deliver to the next Scientific Meeting of the Society. A lecture should be of not more than 45 minutes duration on the topic for which the award was made. The lecture may be published subsequently in the Society's Journal of Pathology at the discretion of the Editor.
8. The successful nominee will receive travelling and hotel expenses and an invitation to attend the Conference Dinner.
